

50 Games and Activities for the Whole Turkey Flock at Thanksgiving

Thanksgiving is a time for family, friends, and of course, turkeys! If you're looking for some fun and festive activities to keep your feathered friends entertained this holiday season, look no further. We've got 50 games and activities that are sure to get them gobbling with delight.

1. Turkey tag: Just like regular tag, but with turkeys! The person who is "it" chases the other turkeys around, trying to tag them. The first turkey to be tagged becomes the new "it."
2. Turkey bowling: Set up some empty water bottles or cans as pins and use a small ball or beanbag as the bowling ball. Take turns bowling and see who can knock down the most pins.
3. Turkey toss: Draw a target on a piece of paper or cardboard and give each turkey a beanbag or small ball. Take turns tossing the beanbags or balls at the target and see who can get the most points.
4. Turkey limbo: Set up a limbo bar and play some festive music. Take turns seeing how low you can go under the bar without touching it. The last turkey to go under the bar without touching it wins.
5. Turkey races: Divide the turkeys into teams and have them race to the finish line. You can use obstacles to make the race more challenging.
6. Turkey musical chairs: Set up chairs in a circle, with one less chair than there are turkeys. Play some music and have the turkeys walk around the chairs. When the music stops, the turkeys have to sit down in a chair. The turkey who doesn't get a chair is out. Keep playing until there is only one turkey left.

7. Turkey charades: Write down a list of Thanksgiving-themed words or phrases and have the turkeys take turns acting them out. The other turkeys have to guess what the word or phrase is.
 8. Turkey Pictionary: Similar to charades, but instead of acting out the word or phrase, the turkeys have to draw it on a piece of paper. The other turkeys have to guess what the drawing is.
 9. Turkey trivia: Test your turkeys' Thanksgiving knowledge with a trivia game. Ask them questions about the history of Thanksgiving, the different types of turkeys, and the different ways to cook turkey.
 10. Turkey crafts: There are all sorts of fun Thanksgiving-themed crafts that you can do with turkeys. Make turkey puppets, turkey masks, or turkey decorations.
1. Turkey story time: Gather the turkeys around and read them a Thanksgiving story. You can find many great Thanksgiving stories online or at your local library.
 2. Turkey songs: Sing some Thanksgiving songs with the turkeys. Here are a few popular Thanksgiving songs:

- "Over the river and through the wood"
 - "We gather together"
 - "The turkey song"
 - "Give thanks"
3. Turkey dance party: Put on some music and let the turkeys dance! You can even have a dance contest and give prizes to the turkeys who dance the best.
 4. Turkey obstacle course: Set up an obstacle course with different obstacles for the turkeys to navigate. You can use things like hay bales, cardboard boxes, and cones.
 5. Turkey maze: Draw a maze on a piece of paper or cardboard and have the turkeys try to find their way through it. You can make the maze more challenging by adding obstacles.
 6. Turkey scavenger hunt: Hide Thanksgiving-themed items around the house or yard and have the turkeys search for them. The first turkey to find all of the items wins.

7. Turkey nature walk: Take the turkeys on a nature walk and look for signs of fall. You can look for leaves changing color, acorns, and other fall foliage.
8. Turkey leaf pile: Rake up a pile of leaves and let the turkeys play in it. They'll love jumping in the leaves and chasing each other around.
9. Turkey pumpkin patch: Visit a pumpkin patch and let the turkeys pick out their own pumpkins. They can decorate their pumpkins with paint, markers, or stickers.
10. Turkey hayride: Take the turkeys on a hayride through the countryside. They'll love the fresh air and the beautiful scenery.

These are just a few ideas for games and activities that you can do with turkeys at Thanksgiving. With a little creativity, you can come up with even more ways to keep your feathered friends entertained this holiday season.
