Parenting is tough, but it's also hilarious. Here's a collection of brutally honest humor for the pooped out parent.

1. On the joys of breastfeeding

"Breastfeeding is like a marathon, but instead of running 26 miles, you're just leaking milk for 26 months." - Unknown

2. On the challenges of potty training

"Potty training is like trying to teach a cat to juggle. It's possible, but it's going to be a lot of work and there will be a lot of accidents." - Unknown

3. On the joys of sleep deprivation

"Sleep deprivation is like being waterboarded, but instead of water, it's with coffee." - Unknown

4. On the challenges of getting your kids to eat healthy

"Getting your kids to eat healthy is like trying to convince a cat to eat vegetables. It's possible, but it's going to take a lot of patience and there will be a lot of food thrown on the floor." - Unknown

5. On the joys of sibling rivalry

"Sibling rivalry is like a never-ending game of tag, except instead of running away from each other, they're just hitting each other." - Unknown

6. On the challenges of keeping your house clean

"Keeping your house clean with kids is like trying to shovel snow in a blizzard. It's a losing battle." - Unknown

7. On the joys of parenting

"Parenting is like a roller coaster. There are ups and downs, but it's always an adventure." - Unknown

8. On the challenges of parenting

"Parenting is like trying to herd cats. It's impossible, but it's also the most rewarding thing in the world." - Unknown

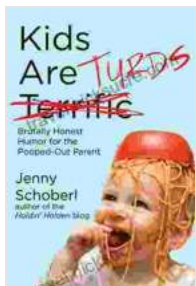

9. On the joys of being a parent

"Being a parent is like having a superpower. You can make people laugh, cry, and everything in between." - Unknown

10. On the challenges of being a parent

"Being a parent is like being a superhero. You're always on call, you never get a break, and you're always saving the day." - Unknown

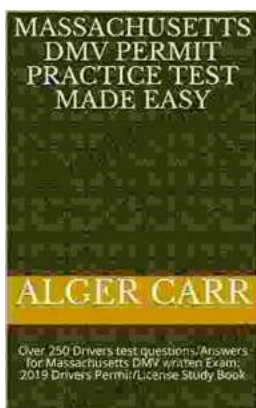

Parenting is tough, but it's also the most rewarding thing in the world. So if you're a parent, hang in there. It gets easier... eventually.
