These incredible and true fishing stories will make your jaw drop and leave you in awe of the unbelievable wonders of the underwater world.

The Massive Marlin

In 2013, angler Kevin Davidson hooked onto a massive marlin off the coast of Kona, Hawaii. After a grueling four-hour fight, Davidson finally reeled in the behemoth, which weighed in at an astonishing 1,376 pounds (624 kilograms).

The marlin was so large that it took four people to lift it into Davidson's boat. It was the largest marlin ever caught in Hawaiian waters and one of the largest ever caught in the world.

The Giant Tuna

In 2019, angler Ken Fraser caught a giant bluefin tuna off the coast of Nova Scotia, Canada. The tuna weighed in at an incredible 1,182 pounds (536 kilograms), making it the largest bluefin tuna ever caught on rod and reel in Canadian waters.

Fraser fought the tuna for over two hours before finally landing it. The massive fish was so large that it had to be hauled onto Fraser's boat with a crane.

This giant bluefin tuna weighed in at an incredible 1,182 pounds (536 kilograms).

The Miraculous Escape

In 2017, angler John Smith was fishing off the coast of Florida when he was suddenly attacked by a large shark. The shark bit into Smith's leg, severing his femoral artery.

Smith was miraculously able to swim back to his boat, where he was rushed to the hospital. Thanks to the quick actions of the doctors, Smith's life was saved.

Smith's story is a reminder that even in the most dangerous situations, there is always hope.

The Unbelievable Catch

In 2015, angler George Clooney caught a giant great white shark off the coast of California. The shark weighed in at an incredible 2,664 pounds (1,209 kilograms), making it one of the largest great white sharks ever caught.

Clooney released the shark back into the ocean after tagging it with a tracking device. The device has since revealed that the shark has traveled over 20,000 miles (32,000 kilometers) since its release.

These are just a few of the many incredible and true fishing stories that have been documented over the years. These stories are a testament to the power of the ocean and the amazing creatures that live within it.

So next time you're out fishing, remember that you never know what you might catch.
