Moon Aruba Travel Guide is the ultimate resource for planning your trip to this Caribbean paradise. With detailed information on everything from the island's best beaches and restaurants to its top activities and attractions, this guide has everything you need to make the most of your time in Aruba.

Beaches

Aruba is home to some of the most beautiful beaches in the Caribbean. With over 20 miles of white-sand beaches to choose from, you're sure to find the perfect spot to relax and soak up the sun.

Here are a few of the most popular beaches in Aruba:

- Eagle Beach: This is one of the most popular beaches in Aruba, and for good reason. The sand is white and powdery, the water is crystal-clear, and there are plenty of amenities nearby.
- Palm Beach: This beach is known for its calm waters and gentle waves, making it a great spot for swimming and snorkeling. There are also plenty of restaurants and bars along the beach, so you can easily grab a bite to eat or a drink.
- Baby Beach: This small beach is located on the southern tip of Aruba, and it's a great spot for families with young children. The water is shallow and calm, and there's a playground on the beach.

Restaurants

Aruba is home to a wide variety of restaurants, from casual beach bars to fine-dining establishments. No matter what your budget or taste, you're sure to find something to your liking.

Here are a few of the most popular restaurants in Aruba:

- The Old Cunucu House: This restaurant is known for its traditional Aruban cuisine. The menu features dishes such as keshi yena (a baked cheese dish), iguana soup, and goat stew.
- Flying Fishbone: This restaurant is located on a pier over the water, and it offers stunning views of the Caribbean Sea. The menu features fresh seafood dishes, such as grilled lobster, shrimp scampi, and mahi-mahi.

- Madame Janette: This restaurant is known for its romantic ambiance and its innovative cuisine. The menu features dishes such as foie gras torchon, grilled rack of lamb, and pan-seared scallops.

Activities

There's no shortage of things to do in Aruba, from swimming and snorkeling to hiking and biking. Here are a few of the most popular activities on the island:

- Swimming and snorkeling: Aruba's crystal-clear waters are perfect for swimming and snorkeling. There are many different spots around the island where you can swim and snorkel, including Eagle Beach, Palm Beach, and Baby Beach.
- Hiking and biking: Aruba has a number of hiking and biking trails, ranging from easy to challenging. Some of the most popular trails include the Arikok National Park Trail, the Hooiberg Trail, and the Bubali Bird Sanctuary Trail.
- Horseback riding: There are several horseback riding stables in Aruba, where you can take a guided tour of the island's desert landscape.

Attractions

Aruba is home to a number of attractions, including historical sites, museums, and natural wonders. Here are a few of the most popular attractions on the island:

- Arikok National Park: This park is home to a variety of plant and animal life, including cacti, lizards, and birds. There are also a number of hiking and biking trails in the park.

- Hooiberg Mountain: This mountain is the highest point in Aruba, and it offers stunning views of the island. There is a hiking trail to the summit of the mountain.
- California Lighthouse: This lighthouse is located at the northern tip of Aruba, and it offers stunning views of the Caribbean Sea. There is a small museum inside the lighthouse.

Planning Your Trip

If you're planning a trip to Aruba, there are a few things you'll need to do to make sure your trip is a success.

- Book your flights and accommodation: The first step is to book your flights and accommodation. There are a number of airlines that offer flights to Aruba, and there are a variety of hotels and resorts to choose from.
- Get a visa: If you're not a citizen of the Netherlands or the United States, you'll need to get a visa to enter Aruba. You can apply for a visa online or at your local embassy or consulate.
- Pack your bags: Be sure to pack light clothing, as the weather in Aruba is warm year-round. You'll also want to pack sunscreen, sunglasses, and a hat. If you're planning on ng any swimming or snorkeling, be sure to pack a swimsuit and snorkel gear.
- Learn some basic Dutch: While English is widely spoken in Aruba, it's helpful to learn some basic Dutch phrases. This will help you get around the island and communicate with the locals.

Aruba is a Caribbean paradise that has something to offer everyone. Whether you're looking to relax on the beach, explore the island's many attractions, or indulge in some of the best dining in the Caribbean, Aruba has something for you.
